5th Sunday of Easter

Readings at Mass: Acts 14:21-27; Apoc 21:1-5; John 13:31-35

Response to the Psalm : I will bless your name forever, O God, my King.

Dear Friends,

From the Gospel today we hear Jesus' saying, "by this shall all men know that you are my disciples, that you love one another."

Love is the subject and the goal of our Christian discipleship. However, we have to ask what does this love look like? Jesus says that his disciples are to love one another as he has loved them and then shows them what that love for them looks like by dying on the cross.

Jesus was willing, out of love, to give up his own life that we might live. Jesus' whole life was orientated to revealing the Father's compassionate heart for his people.

God the Father wants us to have life and have it to the full. In Jesus and through the scriptures we see God's saving plan as he, seeks the lost and lonely, heals the sick, delivers the oppressed, warns those gone astray and promises that he will be with us the end of time.

The more we are able to love like Jesus in such a way, the more will reveal God to the world and point the way to life in all its fullness.

With every blessing, Fr Neil
