6th Sunday of Easter

Readings at Mass: Acts 15:1-2,22-29; Rev
21:10-14,22-23; John 14:23-29.

Response to the Psalm : Let the peoples praise you, O
God; let all the peoples praise you.

Dear Friends,

“My own peace I give you.”

It easy to see Christ's Ascension as the ending of his work on earth: he has gathered his disciples, he has offered teachings, he has healed the sick, he has died and risen from the dead...surely that's more than enough. Of course, the reality is that it is not so much the end as the beginning. The beginning of the new life to which he invites us all – this is the peace which he gives us.

He goes from us in order to come again, he has not left us behind to be forgotten. He comes to us again in the Sacraments, his continued presence on earth; he sends the Holy Spirit to be with us too constantly aiding us as we make our Christian journeys; and finally he will come again at the end of time to bring the world to its completion.

In all this we are invited to join him in his new life. He gone to heaven to prepare a place for us – we merely need to love, to keep his word...to live in him and for him. This will give us such peace as we cannot imagine.

Blessings, Fr Thomas.
