“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.”

Dear friends,

We began this month with the celebration of All Saints last Friday, moving then to the commemoration of All Souls. Indeed, our beloved departed are very much in our minds throughout this month. It is right and proper that we mourn the loss of those we have loved, but as Christians we do in the light of Christ - we do so under the Cross, and looking to the Resurrection. We feel the pain of separation from them, at times a very acute pain - but we are also comforted by the message of Christ. Our departed family and friends are not separated from us either, because we are linked together in the love of God. Through that bond of God's love, those whom we loved on this earth are still united with us - they are still numbered among Christ's faithful.

We have the opportunity to have a particular focus to our prayers for them this month. For by praying for them, we continue to show our love for them - we continue to aid them as they complete their journeys towards that same God whose love binds us all together.

The opportunity to pray for our departed friends and family can give us great comfort here on earth - and also offer great benefit to their souls - so let us keep them in our minds, and commend them to the loving God who seeks to call us all to himself.

Blessings, Fr. Thomas.
